

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: People v Seanderyl Antonio Crawford
Docket No. 267728
L.C. No. 05-009090-01

Michael J. Talbot, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The motion to compel production of People's Exhibit 2 and toll the time for filing appellant's brief is GRANTED IN PART. The prosecutor is ordered to promptly file People's Exhibit 2 with the trial court clerk as required under MCR 7.210(C). Within 14 days after the Clerk's certification of this order, the prosecutor shall file with the Clerk of this Court both a notice of filing the exhibit that indicates the date the exhibit was filed with the trial court clerk and proof of service of the notice on appellant.

The trial court clerk shall provide appellant's counsel access to the exhibit and the equipment necessary to listen to the audio recordings that were played at trial. The trial court clerk is directed to transmit the exhibit to this Court along with the rest of the record when the Court requests transmission of the record under MCR 7.210(G).

The time for filing appellant's brief is extended until 28 days after the exhibit is filed with the trial court clerk.
